enhancing your natural beauty, elevating your bridal look while also focusing on comfort and
long lasting wear

"If you want to feel most beautiful you've ever felt inside and out you won't hesitate to book Pacific Brides. Shyn filled my soul with laughter, enriching banter, but most of all so much love before I left for the first look with my soon-to-be husband. From our first message to our trial, to the day of my wedding Shyn was nothing but excited for me and executed exactly what look I was going for - even when I didn't know! I had seen her work on Instagram and knew that I could give her vague ideas of how I wanted my hair and makeup done and that her creativity would exceed my expectations. What I wasn't expecting was to cry tears of WOW at the sight! She made me feel so comfortable and was so much fun to work with. I'm trying to figure out how to have more events so I can hang out with her. I'm going to out on a limb here and say that if you don't book Pacific Brides, you're seriously missing out. "

I cannot emphasize enough how incredible Sheilynne is. She made me look like a million bucks but still somehow like myself and I have NO idea what kind of magic she used to make that happen. She's super easy to work with, so responsive and flexible. When you meet her you'll understand why - she's the actual coolest human ever. She made us comfortable immediately, I remember laughing with her through the entirety of our session and our day. The makeup was perfect - so natural looking, it felt like I wasn't wearing anything at all AND it lasted all day even through a sweaty sunrise hike. I was nervous without a trail run that I wouldn't 100% love my hair but she absolutely killed it - it was gorgeous but still looked and felt like me. I purchased the where you go I go package and I cannot recommend that enough! Not having to ever worry if you look your best through all of the sweating and wind blowing is priceless. She helped us out so much when getting ready on the mountain and staged for pictures too! The amount of effort she puts into maintaining cleanliness was excellent and she made sure to mask/follow covid precautions 100% of the time. She also offered to drive us up to our hike in her jeep - we wouldn't have been able to even do this hike if it wasn't for her driving us! If you're on the fence about booking her just DO IT! You will NOT regret it!!

100% Will book for all of my marriages ;)I cannot say enough about Shyn, and how amazing and stress-free she made my wedding day. I wear pretty minimal makeup daily, so I wanted an artist who could take me up several notches but not get lost in heavy contouring and cake makeup. I wanted to look like myself but better! I live in Alabama, so I was just scrolling through Shyn's Instagram, bummed that I'd never be able to book anyone in the PNW. A fateful comment led to a booking - she travels the globe for her work! It was totally affordable, and well worth it. Alabama also = oppressive heat. We got married on a day that set a 102-year record (eww) and I worried that my hair and makeup couldn't survive. It totally did - and we didn't even need to reapply. My hair was solid for 3 days after, even! The makeup was natural, beautiful and lightweight. I didn't give her much guidance other than wanting to look like me - and she nailed it. Her aesthetic is clean and elegant - nothing looks fake or overdone. She knows her product lines! On top of that, she was an awesome support and friend. She shuttled my sweating self in an out of A/C for photos, carried my shoes, fluffed my dress for photos, hung out the entire day and reception - and we got to be friends over her extra time in the South. An otherwise potentially stressful day was perfect and chill. I'd book her anytime, and you should, too!

Sheilynne is TOP SHELF. She made my elopement day the most incredible experience due to the fact that I felt my absolute best. I cannot put into words her artistry, commitment, and expertise in all things bridal skin, makeup, hair. She is one of the most down to earth humans and my elopement morning was full of laughter, easy going conversation, and ultimately the best hair and makeup I could have even imagined for the most special day. I would recommend her over, and over again. She immediately brings you under her wing and knows exactly what you need to shine. She is the best HYPE woman you would ever need and she makes you feel like you can conquer anything and everything. I am forever grateful she will be a part of one of my favorite days.

If you are eloping in the PNW you HAVE to book with pacific brides. The night before my big day, I had to make last minute changes to my timeline and Shyn was SO flexible. The morning of, I was a bit stressed, but she made sure to provide me with the most amazing and relaxing experience. She is so funny and personable! Not to mention she KNOWS HOW TO WORK WITH ETHNIC HAIR!! My gosh!! I gave her a brief description of my vision and she NAILED it. My face was flawless and my hair lasted literally all day. We did so much exploring and hiking and my hair and makeup was just perfect. I am so so thankful I found her and I highly recommend!!!
